

FROM THE DESK OF THE CITY MANAGER

Within the last hour we have received an update from Tarrant County Judge B. Glen Whitley. We know that these are confusing times, but we will continue to bring you only official, up to date information. What Tarrant County Judge Whitley has released today is an Executive Order that does impact our City when it goes into effect at 11:59 pm tonight, March 24. We urge all of you to read this Executive Order in full. You can find it at:

<http://www.tarrantcounty.com/content/dam/main/global/Covid-19/TarrantCountyExecutiveOrder-Executed-3-24-20%20-003.pdf>

In addition to all current County and State regulations in place for the City, this Executive Order will impact the City of White Settlement in the following ways.

* All persons currently residing within the incorporated and unincorporated territory of Tarrant County shall stay at their place of residence, except as allowed by this Order. All persons may leave their residences only for Essential Travel, to work in Essential Businesses, Government Service, or Essential Critical Infrastructure, or to perform Minimum Basic Operations. Allowed reasons for leaving residence are: tasks essential to health and safety of self or household member, to obtain or to deliver to others food or needed supplies and essential items, to engage in outdoor activity while maintaining social distancing, to work at an essential business, to care for a family member or pet in another household

* public or private gatherings occurring outside a single household are prohibited

You can refer to the bottom of the Executive Order linked above for a table that breaks down and defines all the restrictions. Please continue to demonstrate an abundance of caution and keep yourselves and your families safe as we all do our part to get through this pandemic. Below is a list of official resources that you can utilize to stay up to date on the latest official news and information.
